

Don't Miss It!

23rd Annual Orange County Mediation Conference

Promoting the Choice to Mediate: Moving Beyond Barriers

Orange County's premier mediation conference for mediators, ADR experts and peacemaking professionals now in its 23rd year!

Friday, March 20, 2015 from 8:00 AM to 4:00 PM

- Opportunity to meet and dialog with dispute resolution experts
- 10 Interactive Workshops
- Updates on Orange County Superior Court Mediation Program by: Commissioner Carmen Luege and Judge Kirk Nakamura

Keynote Speakers:

The renowned Forrest "Woody" Mosten, Mediator/Trainer will speak on "Informed Consent: The Essence of Mediation"

Jack R. Goetz, Esq., Ph.D., Faculty and Conflict Resolution Program, Cal State University Northridge – Is Voluntary Certification of Mediators on its way? Dr. Goetz will answer this question and more with his talk on "Setting Standards for Mediators: Fulfilling Public Expectations and Removing Barriers."

Your admission includes: Continental breakfast and lunch. Attorneys and paralegals may earn up to 6 MCLE credits including the three Specialty Credits.

To register for the conference and to learn more about the OC Mediation Conference visit the official website at: ocmediationconference.org

Location: University of California Irvine, University Club
801 East Peltason Drive, Irvine, CA 92697

Time: 8:00 am to 8:30 am Breakfast & Registration
8:30 am to 4:00 pm Conference

Sponsored by: Community Service Programs, Inc., OC Human Relations & Mari J. Frank, Esq. – MCLE Provider

Presented by: The Orange County Mediation Conference Committee

Mari J. Frank, Esq is a co-sponsor of the OCMC. She is an approved State Bar of California MCLE Provider and certifies that this educational activity has been approved for up to 6 hours of MCLE credit.